

CENTRAL EURASIAN STUDIES
IN EAST ASIA AND BEYOND

SPECIAL LECTURE
AND DISCUSSION
SERIES

ROUNDTABLE "MIGRATION ISSUES IN CENTRAL ASIA"

Date: Friday, March 18

Time: 15:00-16:15 (Tokyo)

Understanding and Theorizing Migrants' Experiences in Non-Western, Non-Democratic Migration Regimes: Central Asian Migrant Workers in Russia and Turkey

RUSTAM URINBOYEV is an Associate Professor at Lund University and a Senior Researcher at the University of Helsinki. Rustamjon studies migration, corruption, governance and penal institutions in the context of Russia and Central Asia. He is the author of "Migration and Hybrid Political Regimes: Navigating the Legal Landscape in Russia" (University of California Press, 2020).

Central Asian Migrant Workers in Russia and Turkey: Differences in Gender Perspectives.

SHERZOD ERALIEV is an Academy of Finland Postdoctoral Researcher at the Aleksanteri Institute, University of Helsinki. He defended his PhD thesis on Russia's policies vis-à-vis labour migrants from Central Asia at the University of Tsukuba in 2018. His research interests include migration in Eurasia, state and society relations in Central Asia.

Discussants: Manizha Rajabova and Aizhan Mukhamejanova (University of Tsukuba)

MODERATED BY DR. NAFISSA INSEBAYEVA

The Nippon Foundation Central Asia-Japan Human Resource Development Project (NipCA)

主催: 筑波大学「日本財団 中央アジア・日本人材育成プロジェクト (NipCA)」

協力: 日本・中央アジア友好協会 (JACAFA)、筑波大学 国際局、学生部、グローバルコミュニケーション教育センター
社会貢献委員会、スーパーグローバル大学事業推進室、グローバル・リーダーシップ教育プログラム、人文・文化学群、
社会・国際学群、アルマトイオフィス、タシケントオフィス

REGISTRATION DETAILS

Please, register for the event using the following link:

<https://us06web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZUscuqgrj0pHd05HaWcgFxoZsezRWDxIzXX>