

Workshop: THE VON WRIGHT AND WITTGENSTEIN ARCHIVES (WWA) AS RESEARCH PLATFORM FOR HUMANITIES
OCTOBER 13-14

University of Helsinki Athena, Siltavuorenpenger 3 A, seminar hall 302

The workshop is open to all interested

PROGRAMME

DAY 1:

10.15. Thomas Wallgren, Director of WWA: Opening words

- WWA research and development plans and the challenges of digital humanities

10.30: Bernt Österman: Curator of WWA

- WWA 2009 - 2016

11.00 Discussion of presentations by Österman and Wallgren

11.30 Current digital humanities context and the future of WWA

- Round table discussion with kick-off presentations by prof. Mikko Tolonen (Helsinki) and Minna Kaukonen (Finnish National library).

Tolonen's topic is: Some thoughts on Helsinki Digital Humanities and Dariah collaboration in Finland

DISCUSSION

12.30 LUNCH

2.00 pm

Current digital humanities context and the future of WWA

- Round table discussion continues. New kick-off presentations by Leo Lahti (University of Turku) and Emily Ohman.

Lahti's topic is: An open science approach to large-scale bibliographic analysis

Ohman's presentation is based on her ongoing work in linguistic technology, specifically also on sentiment annotation of the Fin-Claris corpus

DISCUSSION

3.30 pm Coffee

3.45 Prof. Niklas Bruun: Immaterial property rights and data protection laws from the perspective of WWA activities and development

DISCUSSION

5.30 Closing of day 1

DAY 2:

10.15: Round-table: Archives and digital developments. Archives, students and teaching at the University of Helsinki

Roundtable with kick-off presentation by Sakari Katajamäki: "Digital archives for Finnish literature: where are we now" and by Maija Paavolainen Information Specialist HULib
DISCUSSION

12.00 LUNCH

2- 3.30 pm. Final round table discussion